Mo Zaic and his pals love to watch the sailboats on the Potomac River. Help them add a buoy next to, below, or above each boat to solve the puzzle. Buoys can not be next to each other even diagonally. The numbers in the rows and columns tell you how many buoys are in each row and column. The letters covered by the buoys will be your answer. Enter your answer to find the clue location. Go there to get the clue and keep track of it for the final puzzle.
